On and after Tuesday, the 17th day of September 1918, treasury bills will be issued at the Banks of Bengal, Bombay and Madras in denominations of Rs. 5,000, Rs. 10,000, Rs. 25,000, Rs. 50,000, Rs. 1 lakh, Rs. 5 lakhs, and Rs. 10 lakhs, and for terms of six months, nine months, and twelve months to be reckoned from the date of issue of the bills. The rates payable for the bills will be notified from time to time. The rates in the first instance will be:—

For six months' bills—Rupees 97 annas 12 per cent.

For nine months' bills—Rupees 96 annas 6 per cent.

For twelve months' bills—Rupees 95 annas 2 per cent.

2. The Governor-General in Council reserves the right at any time to vary the rates payable for any class of bills, to fix a limit to the amount of bills to be issued in any week, or to discontinue issues of any class or classes of bills.

3. The bills will be repayable at maturity at the Presidency Bank of issue.

4. The bills will be in the following form:—

"This treasury bill entitles or order to the payment of Rs. at the Bank of <sup>Bengal</sup> <sup>Bombay</sup> <sup>Madras</sup> out of the revenues of the Government of India on the day of 1918"

If the name of the payee be not filled in, the bill will be paid to the bearer: it will otherwise be payable to the payee or to his order.

5. Treasury bills can be obtained during banking hours at the head offices of the Banks of Bengal, Bombay and Madras, or the case may be, on payment of the necessary amount by cheque, cash or otherwise.

6. Arrangements have also been made for the issue and repayment at maturity of these bills at the branches of the Presidency Banks at the marginally-named centres.

Cuttack, Lahore, Delhi, Rangoon and Kashmir.

7. Brokerage will be paid at the rate of 1/16 per cent on applications for treasury bills having a recognised broker's stamp. No brokerage will be paid in the case of bills taken up direct by banks.

8. Income-tax will not be deducted from the yield of treasury bills at the time of their payment, but the yield will be assessable to income-tax, and must be included by an assessee in any return of income or profits submitted by him for income-tax purposes.

As. 1870.—Under section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1864, the Governor in Council hereby declares that the land mentioned below and measuring 25 acres, by the name of Bida more or less, is needed for a public purpose, to wit for a school, and hereby orders that the same be acquired.

persons existed together with the necessary water-supply and arrangements for wash and wear, or shall satisfy himself that such shelter and water-supply have been provided by private agency. The President shall also satisfy himself that the compulsory vaccination is necessary to avert the further spread of the disease, or is in the interests of the affected population taking account of climatic conditions.

The President may require all persons who evacuate their houses voluntarily, or are evicted under this regulation, to reside in such place as he may appoint.

(4) In any portion of the City which has been declared infected the President may order open, occupy and use or may delegate any person to enter upon, occupy and use without having recourse to the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1904, any building or place which is required for, and is, in the opinion of the Health Officer suitable for, any purpose connected with plague measures; provided that, if the building or place is occupied, twenty-four hours' notice in writing shall be given to the occupier or shall be conspicuously affixed on such building or place. The owner of the house of such building or place shall be entitled to a reasonable rent to be fixed by the President, for the period during which the ground or building may be used for purposes connected with plague; and the President shall, when any building ceases to be so used, cause it to be thoroughly cleaned and, if the owner so desires, whitewashed internally and externally.

(5) If the President is of opinion that the destruction of any hut or shed is necessary to prevent the spread of plague, he may take summary measures for the destruction of such hut or shed and of the materials of which it is constructed.

(6) The President may direct that any dwelling house or any landing place or railway goods-shed or any place used for the storage of goods shall be inspected and that all rats found therein shall be destroyed; and to facilitate the destruction of rats may order the temporary removal of any goods or other materials there.

(7) The President may direct that at any place in the City any accumulation of goods, being occupied by rats, and or otherwise, shall be removed, and shall, if necessary, be enclosed and exposed to the sun in such manner and for such period as he may fix.

(8) Every householder and every medical practitioner shall at once report to the Health Officer any case of plague or any case of fever with glandular swellings or any unusual mortality among rats which may come to his notice.

(9) (i) In the absence of a written consent to the contrary, every Inspector, assistant, peon, watchman, coolie, messenger or other casual servant employed to do duty in connection with plague, shall be entitled to one month's notice before discharge, or to one month's wages in lieu thereof, unless he is discharged for misconduct or was engaged for a specified term and is discharged at the end of it. Similarly every supplier of coolies shall be entitled to one month's notice before his coolies are discharged.

(ii) No such Inspector, assistant, peon, watchman, coolie, messenger or other casual servant shall, in the absence of a written contract authorising him to do so, and without reasonable cause, resign his employment or absent himself from his duties without giving one month's notice or shall neglect or refuse to perform any of his duties. In the manner no supplier of coolies or other casual servants shall withdraw his coolies or servants without giving one month's notice.

(10) When in consequence of the exercise of the powers conferred by or under these regulations any property is damaged or destroyed, the President shall pay to the owner by way of compensation such sum as he may consider sufficient to cover the cost of repairing the damage or replacing the property destroyed.

(11) Any person disobeying, circumventing, or refusing to submit himself to, any of these regulations, or obstructing any measure taken under the authority of these regulations, shall be deemed to have committed an offence punishable under section 188 of the Indian Penal Code, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months or fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or both.

Enact—(1) The plague regulations being when broadly made and issued by Government under the Epidemic Diseases Act, are hereby enforced as a statutory provision for preventing the spreading of the Epidemic Diseases Act in General Order No. 101 of 1905.

(2) By Government Order No. 467, dated 11th November 1905, all members of the Madras Command have been directed to obey the plague regulations, and any disobedience of them is punishable as a military offence. Military prisoners have been warned (Quarantine Officer's Circular No. 11, dated 14th November 1905) that any disobedience to said regulations or the regulations or measures issued in any official or plague belt will be treated as a breach of the good articles of the regulations or measures issued as a condition of the confinement of such prisoner, and that any prisoner being guilty thereof will be liable to have his property stopped backwards and the same retained at pleasure by witnesses.

E. A. GRAHAM,
